

HÜPPE JOIN FORCES WITH COOPER CALLAS

Immediate nationwide access to Hüppe's core product range plus significantly improved stockholding in the UK are now available following the appointment of Cooper Callas as Hüppe UK's premier distribution partner.

Following recent management changes and a review of its business, Hüppe UK is taking decisive action to significantly improve its customer service, as demand for its high quality shower enclosures, bath screens and shower tray solutions increases. The partnership with Cooper Callas ensures Hüppe's extensive, superior quality product portfolio is readily available to the UK bathroom market and underpins Hüppe's dynamic growth plans. Cooper Callas is offering the entire Hüppe core range, an extensive selection of which will be readily available from stock. Immediate access to core product lines is a priority, which Hüppe is monitoring for further improvements.

"Hüppe has changed dramatically in recent months – we are a customer-focused business and extremely pro-active - and this is a key partnership for us in realising our ambitious growth plans" explained UK General Manager Mike Kelly. "Our product portfolio offers a solution to any showering requirement whether domestic or commercial and Cooper Callas, as a professional and respected distributor with considerable logistics capabilities, will ensure our product solutions are swift as well as sure."

Hüppe offers a wide range of superior quality showering solutions in many configurations from quadrants, rectangles and Walk-In enclosures to bespoke individual made-to-measure solutions complete with trays and complementary accessories.
